

Violence Against Women and Girls Safer Streets Interventions

The Northamptonshire Office of the Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner and partners have installed over 40+ interventions, to help make women and girls feel safer in the Kettering and Northampton night-time economy and nearby public spaces. Below is a snapshot of some of the works introduced:

600

Officers trained in policing the night-time economy

30

ID scans installed

2

Safer Nights Out vans implemented

18

Venue sign ups to Shout Up Project

8

Help points installed

5,000

Security packs for students

15

New cameras installed

New Flare app introduced to report crime/feelings of unsafety anonymously

Safer routes reinvigorated

Taxi training scheme rolled out

1,000

Male students trained in "Stand by her" training scheme

50

Venue sign ups to Licensing SAVI (LSAVI) initiative

2

Alleyways closed

Improved lighting schemes including taxi ranks and Becketts Park

